

FALL NES-CATA CONFERENCE ON CREATION CARE & JUSTICE: PARALLEL PAPERS

Session 1: 10:15 am-12:00 pm

Main Ballroom:

Moderator: Patrick Franklin

Adrian Langdon, "The Future of Ecotheology: Some Post-Barthian Suggestions

Taina Chan, "The Life-Giving Water: Jonathan Edwards and the Stockbridge Indians: A Perspective of Environmental Justice"

Erik Ivaska, "Practicing Resurrection: United with the Risen Christ as Ambassadors of Reconciliation"

Classroom 108:

Moderator: Richard Middleton

Chris Landon, "The End of the Beginning and the Beginning of the End: The Role of the Unnamed Prophet (Judg 6:8–10) in the Decline of Israel in Judges"

Matthijs Kronemeijer, "The Death of the Fig Tree (Mk 11 / Mt 21) and Climate, Injustice, and Hope for Renewal"

John Elwood, "The Eco-realist Context: [Re]Thinking the Faith in a Failing World"

Session 2: 1:00-2:45 pm

Main Ballroom

Moderator: Richard Middleton

Lydia Johnson, "Kindness and God's Good Creation"

Steven Hall, "Natural and Human Thriving: Species Restoration and Aquacultural Food Production"

Classroom 108:

Moderator: Patrick Franklin

Lowell Bliss, "Jacques Ellul, Eco-Realism, and the Breaching of the 1.5°C Climate Target"

David Larrabee, "Environmental Justice: Letting the victims guide our eco-theology"

Howard Snyder, "The Economics of Creation Justice"

Session 3: 2:45-4:30 pm

Main Ballroom

Moderator: Chris Landon

Joel Tejedo, "Pentecostals, Civic Education, and Eco-Integrated Farming: The Case of Four Eco-Farming Institutions in Northern Luzon, Philippine"

Shu-Hsiang Wu, "Creation Care and Justice in the Ancient Chinese Context"

Classroom 108

Moderator: Richard Middleton

Lynn Braband, "When Creation Care Gets Messy; Human-Wildlife Conflicts in a 'Not Yet' World"

Joseph Vybihal, "Will Nature Survive Compute?"